Hua Hin Golf Festival packages (August – September)

Hua Hin Golf Festival in August – September

Hua Hin is nothing less than a golf paradise and one of the leading golf destinations in Asia.

With courses like Black Mountain – host of the 2015 & 2016 True Thailand Classic, Thailand’s best championship course and Banyan – one of Thailand’s top 3 golf courses, it is easy to understand why.

In addition to Black Mountain and Banyan, Hua Hin offers no less than 10 courses of which nine of the courses are located within 30-40 minutes drive from the city center.
The golf courses in Hua Hin in August & September are in very good conditions, and generally not as busy and in the winter months. You can easily play golf in Hua Hin in the rainy season, as Hua Hin is the resort town with the least precipitation in Thailand. When it rains, the heavy rain showers are often short (maximum 1-2 hours). You can use this time relaxing in one of the cafés located around the course.

Wonderful Vietnam – 10 days

A 10-day trip through wonderful Vietnam

On this 10-day trip you get a fantastic insight to the country. From the charming capital of Hanoi to a two-day mini-cruise onboard a traditional junk boat in one of the world’s most beautiful areas; the Halong Bay with its more than 3000 limestone islands.

Cross the 17th parallel that divided North and South
Vietnam, visit the Imperial City Hué with its Perfume River, the Imperial Tombs and the city’s former palace area. Visit Hoi An – perhaps Vietnam’s most beautiful city and one of the oldest. From there, you continue to the south, to the vibrant Ho Chi Minh City – formerly Saigon.

The journey ends in the lush Mekong Delta, where time has stood still for many years. Here you are going on an adventure through the countless small rivers and canals.

Day 1: Arrival Hanoi (D)

Upon arrival at Hanoi Noi Bai Airport, our guide and driver will welcome you and drive you to your hotel. The charming Hanoi is sometimes called the Paris of the Orient with its shaded boulevards, green parks and old, well-maintained colonial buildings. After arriving at the hotel you can stroll around and catch the first glimpse of the idyllic city. In the evening you will meet your guide, have a nice dinner and enjoy authentic local Vietnamese cuisine. Then it is time for water puppetry – unique to Vietnam and an experience you must see in Hanoi.

Overnight at hotel in Hanoi

Day 2: Hanoi – a half-day city tour (D)

The day starts with a visit to the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, the one-legged Pagoda and a visit to the house of Ho Chi Minh; the country’s father. Continue to Vietnam’s first university and the Temple of Literature and then visit “Hanoi Hilton”; the nickname of the prison where American pilots were placed during the Vietnam War.

Visit Hanoi’s Old Quarter and the Hoan Kiem Lake and enjoy a nice bike ride around Hanoi’s old and narrow streets. We stop at the Ngoc Son Temple. The rest of the day you can explore Hanoi on your own, strolling around the French Quarter, where many embassies are located, go shopping in the Old Town or just relax by one of the many parks and lakes that make Hanoi one of the greenest cities in Asia.

Please note: the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum is closed every year between October and November. You can still visit his house and palace complex.

Overnight at hotel in Hanoi

Day 3: Hanoi – Halong (B, L, D)

Pick-up at your hotel and transfer to Halong Bay, about 170 km east of Hanoi (about 4 hours). Upon arrival you will be welcomed on a traditional wooden junk boat. While enjoying a delicious seafood lunch, you can gradually see the limestone cliffs slowly rising from the water as you get closer. Over 3000 limestone islands are scattered in the emerald green waters. While some islands are no more than rocks, others are much bigger and contain huge cathedral-like caves with stalactites and stalagmites. Most of the islands are covered with thick green vegetation and there are deserted sand-covered bays everywhere. Just enjoy the view and if you have the courage, jump into the refreshing water. In the evening, a three to five course dinner will be waiting after the mandatory “Sundowner” on the deck.

We recommend, that you pack a small overnight bag and bring to Halong and leave the rest of the luggage in Hanoi.

Day 4: Halong Bay – Hanoi – flight to Hué (B, L)

Wake up to another fantastic day cruising on the Halong Bay.
Visit the vast and impressive stalactite cave located on an island in the middle of the bay. It takes about half an hour to walk through it. You can then spend a few hours at a Halong Bay beach, before returning to the junk boat again. Early afternoon we return to the coast again, where the minivan will take you back to Hanoi. From here it is not far to the airport and the plane connecting you to the next big experience – the Imperial City of Hué. Upon arrival in Hué, you will meet your guide and be transferred to your hotel.

Overnight at hotel in Hué

Day 5: The Imperial City of Hué – a half-day city tour (B)

After breakfast at the hotel, the day starts with a guided tour around the big Citadel, Noon Gate and the Forbidden City. We then visit the Khai Dinh Royal Tomb and the Tu Duc Mausoleums. If we have time, you can stroll around the Dong Ba market also.

The afternoon is at your disposal. You might want to try some delicious local dishes in one of the many small restaurants located throughout the city. A specialty is banh khoai, a kind of egg-dough filled with shrimp and vegetables. Very tasty.

Overnight at hotel in Hué

Day 6: Hué – Hoi An (B)

We will leave after breakfast for a spectacular drive south. The trip lasts four hours and takes you through the beautiful Hai Van Pass. After driving to the city of Danang, we continue to the historic Hoi An. The city is incredibly pleasant to stay in and for many, this place is one of the best experiences in Vietnam.

Enjoy a walking tour through the Old Town, which has been declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Experience a mix of Chinese, Japanese and Vietnamese architecture, when visiting one of the oldest houses on the way to the Japanese Covered Bridge. The rest of the day is for shopping or culinary specialties.
Overnight at hotel in Hoi An

Day 7: Hoi An (B)

The day is at your disposal. You can get new tailored clothing, relax at a café by the river or rent a bike to venture out in the countryside or to the magnificent Cua Dai Beach.

Overnight at hotel in Hoi An.

Day 8: Hoi An – fly to Saigon (B)

Breakfast is at the hotel, then transfer to Danang Airport for an-hour’s flight to Saigon. Upon arrival at the Tan Son Nhat Airport, there will be a short drive to the center of Ho Chi Minh, as the city officially has been renamed since 1975. Ho Chi Minh City is a huge metropolis, which unlike its northern counterpart Saigon, is crowded with bikes and motorbikes, lots of shopping areas and sidewalk cafes.
Check-in and overnight at hotel in Saigon

Day 9: Mekong Delta (B, L, D)

Departure for another cruise in the morning, where you will be driven down to the Mekong Delta. Around noon you will get on board a nice junk boat. The scene is set for a fantastic sailing trip on the fourth longest river in the world. Among other things, you can experience a coconut production and the local life along the river. This experience will be from a row boat. You are back at the hotel in the evening.
Overnight at hotel in Saigon
Day 10: Cu Chi – Saigon departure (B)

We start the day with a trip to the infamous Cu Chi Tunnels, located about 70 kilometers northwest of the city. The Cu Chi Tunnels extend 250 impressive kilometers and are proof of the incredible ingenuity and resourcefulness characteristic of the Vietnamese people. It was from here, the North Vietnamese people carried out their guerrilla war in the south and we will see the secret trapdoors, underground kitchens, living areas, hospitals and meeting rooms. After some wonderful days from north to south, you will drive to the airport and fly back home or the journey continues with an extended beach holiday, maybe Phan Tiet, Phu Quoc, Vietnam or Thailand.

Burma – The forgotten paradise
Round trip in Burma – The Lost Paradise

Thailand Tours are now offering a unique private trip to the absolute favorite sights in Burma. There are still few foreigners finding their way to Burma. That makes it the perfect time if you want to experience the country, before tourism seriously makes its way into this beautiful country. Fantastic and friendly people await you in the forgotten paradise. From the exciting capital, Yangon, to the temple city of Bagan and from the historical Mandalay to the beautiful Inle Lake in Eastern Burma. A fantastic 8-day trip, from where you can choose to end it with a beach holiday in Burma or fly back for more adventures in Thailand.

Day 1: Bangkok – Yangon (by plane – not included)

After just an hour of flying, you arrive at the Yangon international airport where you will meet your guide. You will be taken to the Panorama hotel, a good tourist class hotel located at the heart of Yangon. The afternoon is at your disposal. Pamper yourself and let Burma welcome you with high tea at the historic Beach Hotel. In the evening we will visit the magnificent Shwedagon Pagoda, Burma’s main sanctuary, where the locals come to pray and sacrifice. Overnight stay at the Panorama Hotel or similar.

Day 2: Yangon – Bagan (by plane)

After breakfast we head to Yangon’s airport early morning, flying to Bagan (80 minutes). Upon arrival at the Nyaung Oo Airport, we drive directly to the Kumudra Hotel (Junior Suite), where there will be time for a shower and a refreshment. The day is spent exploring Bagan. Bagan has Southeast Asia’s largest collection of temples and pagodas. Although the city has not been inhabited since the 13th century, when the Mongol Kublai Khan devastated the area, you can still find more than 2000 temples in the area.

It is an incredible sight standing at the top of one of the temples, looking out over a landscape, where it seems as hundreds of temples were once sprinkled from the sky. Even people not very interested in temples must give in, when visiting Bagan.

In addition to the colorful Nyaung Oo local Market, we are going to see the Shwezigon Pagoda, Wetkyi-in Gubyaukkyi, a cave temple with very beautiful and distinctive murals, the elegant Htilominlo Temple (known for its plaster carvings) and lastly, the Tharaba Gate. Later we will experience Ananda Okkyauung (one of the few surviving brick monasteries from the early Bagan period), the Thatbyinnyu Pagoda (the highest in Bagan at 61 meters) and the Dhammayangyi Temple (known for its remarkable brickwork).

Enjoy the sunset on one of the highest temples in Bagan. Overnight stay at the Kumudra Hotel (Junior Suite) or similar.

Day 3: Bagan

After breakfast, we visit the Myinkaba village and watch the process of traditional lacquer ware, one of the best-known Myanmar handicrafts and a specialty of Bagan. We visit Myinkaba Gubyaukkyi (a temple with a lot of Hindu influence) and the Manuha temple, built by the captured King Thaton.

In the afternoon we drive to the Minnanthu village. In this area we are going to visit some of the most interesting temples such as Payathonzu, Lemyethnar, Sinbyushin, Nandaminnya and the Minnanthu monastery. Enjoy the sunset over the Ayeyarwaddy River at Bupaya. Overnight stay at the Kumudra Hotel (Junior Suite) in Bagan or similar.

Day 4: Bagan – Mandalay (by plane)

After breakfast we leave for the Nyaung Oo airport for a short flight to Mandalay. After check-in at the Emerald Land Inn, we do a city tour, including the Mahamuni Pagoda.

The pagoda is known for its Buddha statue with gold leaf. We are going to experience workshops of local artists woodcarving, making gold leaf, marble stone carving and much more. Afterwards we go to the Shwe Inn Bin Monastery, which is a special type of Burmese wooden architecture. At last, we visit the local market Zegyo. Overnight stay at the Emerald Land Inn or similar.

Day 5: Mandalay

After breakfast we are going on an excursion to the old royal city Amarapura. We visit the Mahagandayone Monastery, where more than a thousand monks live and study. Then we go to the U Bein Bridge over Taungthaman Lake, the longest teak bridge in the world. We are also visiting the Atumashi Monastery (the incomparable monastery) and the Kuthodaw Pagoda with 729 marble stone slabs of Buddhist scriptures (known as the largest book in the world). Enjoy the sunset and the fantastic view from Mandalay Hill. Overnight stay at the Emerald Land Inn or similar.

Day 6: Mandalay – Heho – Inle Lake (by plane)

In the morning, we once again go for a short flight. This time we travel to Hebo, located in the Shan State. We go for an hour of scenic drive ending at the Nyaung Shwe Pier at Inle Lake. Inle Lake is another highlight on this Burma trip. Some call it Burma’s equivalent to Venice.

We are going on a round trip on Inle Lake in a private boat the whole day. We are experiencing the now world famous local fishermen rowing with one leg. We will see the floating gardens made on a foundation of water hyacinths and anchored to the bottom with bamboo poles. You can visit a floating village by Ywama (the “downtown” of the lake), where you may be lucky and experience a floating market. The trip also includes a visit to the Phaung Daw Oo Pagoda, a visit to the Inpawkhon village, making a living by weaving, and a visit to the monastery with the bouncing cats. Most of all we are simply experiencing the local life on the lake as it unfolds close to our boat. Overnight stay at the Sky Lake Inle Resort (Superior Room) or similar.

Day 7: Inle Lake – Heho – Yangon (by plane)

In the morning we head towards the Nyaung Shwe jetty by private boat and then again drive to the Heho Airport flying to Yangon. Upon arrival you will again stay at the Panorama Hotel. In the afternoon you can go shopping in the Bogyok Aung San Market, the busiest and most bustling bazaar of the city. Afterwards we will experience Rangoon’s landmark, the Sule Pagoda, and then the Botataung Pagoda, Chinatown and the fruit market. Overnight stay at the Panorama Hotel (Deluxe room) or similar.

Day 8: Yangon – Bangkok (by plane – not included)

In the morning we visit the Reclining Buddha Chaukhtatkyi and then the Karaweik Royal Barge (a royal floating barge on the Kandawgyi Lake). We head to the airport from where it is not

Cambodia round trip – From the Killing Fields to Angkor Wat 5 days/4 nights

Cambodia Round trip – From the gruesome Killing Fields to Angkor Wat; the largest religious monument in the world

Not so many years ago, Cambodia was a country at war and in chaos. The dictatorship under Pol Pot killed more than a million people and was one of the worst genocides the world has ever seen. It is also not many years ago, that Cambodia began opening up its borders. Most Cambodian people today prefer to forget about what happened. They want to move forward and put the past behind them.

Today the country, which used to be a French protectorate, is still a very poor country, but development is making visible progress. The country is getting on the right track and if you did not know, one could hardly imagine the atrocities committed in the country.

Experience a Cambodia in transition on a private trip, where you will see all the essentials of the country, and also have time to digest the experiences.

Day 1 Bangkok – Phnom Penh: Royal Palace and river-sailing

You will be picked up at your hotel in Bangkok early morning and be driven to the airport to fly with Thailand’s “boutique airline”, Bangkok Airways, or the low-cost airline AirAsia to Cambodia’s capital Phnom Penh (transfer in Thailand and flights are not included in the price, but can be arranged).

At the airport your guide will be waiting with a Thailand Tours sign. You will drive to a 3-star hotel in an excellent central location in Phnom Penh. You get a couple of hours to relax or walk around the neighborhood. Try lunch at one of the cozy sidewalk restaurants down by the river.
Afterwards we’ll depart to the Royal Palace, taking local transportation; the three-wheeled “tuk tuk”. You must try this. The Royal Palace is an impressive building dating from 1886 and the residence of the King. At the royal palace you will find “The Silver Pagoda”, which houses many national treasures; one important attraction being a human-sized Buddha figure adorned with more than 9000 diamonds. Literally, a precious sight.

There is time for afternoon coffee in one of the many French sidewalk-restaurants, where you truly feel the pulse of Phnom Penh. Afterwards you will board a boat that will take you on the Tonlé Sap river, where you can experience a memorable sunset over Phnom Penh. The trip is an hour long.

The evening is at your disposal. One of many recommendations is dinner at the “Foreign Correspondents Club”, which is down by the river.

Day 2 Phnom Penh: The Killing Fields, S21 and the Russian Market

After breakfast at the Castle hotel, we leave before noon for a historic scene in Cambodia you shouldn’t miss. About 20 kilometers from Phnom Penh lie the “Killing Fields” of Choeung Ek, where the Khmer Rouge killed thousands of prisoners during the Pol Pot regime.

On site, a monument has been raised in memory of those who lost their lives. You will see thousands of skulls and during the tour you will see different mass graves. The guide will explain how the executions were carried out. It is a sobering experience to visit the place. The trip then continues to the Tuol Sleng museum; formerly a school but under Pol Pot, converted to S-21, better known as the Security Police Prison. The place has been preserved as found by the Vietnamese forces, who overthrew Pol Pot. There is no shortage of gruesome details about the methods that were used to torture innocent Cambodians. We drive back to a more comfortable reality by having lunch at a local restaurant.

After lunch it is a short drive out to the Russian Market, where you can buy anything imaginable. The experience of being at the market is most likely greater than the temptation to buy the knick-knacks. We are back at Castle hotel by the afternoon. The rest of the day is at your disposal. The guide will gladly help with recommendations, if the plan is to dine out.

Day 3 Phnom Penh – Siam Reap (Angkor Wat)

After another breakfast at the hotel, we leave for the airport before noon. After a short flight we check-in at the hotel in Siam Reap.

There is time to relax a bit at the hotel. In the early afternoon, we get to experience one of the Seven Wonders; Angkor Wat, truly one of the most incredible buildings. The temples of Angkor is only about five kilometers from Siam Reap but extends over an impressive area of approximately 60 square kilometers. It is not possible to see the whole area in one day, so this day we will focus on the temples of Preah Ko, Bakong and Lolei, not far from the fantastic main temple of Angkor Wat.

Last visit of the day is Phnom Bakheng, located on a hill overlooking a large part of the temple area. The perfect location for a beautiful sunset. The atmosphere at the temples of Angkor can be overwhelming and leaving just after sunset is the perfect time.
Day 4 Siam Reap (Angkor Wat)

We leave for the temples of Angkor before both sunrise and breakfast. We are going to experience the Bayon temple – the temple with the huge facial reliefs. Afterwards we drive back to the hotel and have breakfast. Before noon, we drive to Angkor Wat for the last time to experience the main temples of Angkor Thom and Ta Prom, which have been partly absorbed by the jungle. Full off experiences, we drive back to Raffles to relax. Early in the afternoon it is possible to see more of the city. We recommend a lunch at one of the many cozy restaurants in Siam Reap. After a bit of sightseeing in Siam Reap, we drive to the outskirts of the city, where the floating village on the Tonlé Sap lake is located. People of Vietnamese descent live here in wooden houses raised on stilts on the lake. We get onboard a small boat and get to see this special and interesting area from the seaside. We are back in the evening, probably tired. The evening is at your disposal.

Day 5: Siam Reap – Bangkok
